FACTS.
Candy pulls are in fashion again, but they are not so much "glue on the tongue" as the Philadelphia News.

The first brigade of Illinois militia is with out a General. This accounts for the easy attitude of Europe.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Second thoughts are sometimes best, which is a good reason why a man who attempts to commit suicide by drowning should be able to swim.—P. I.

It is said that sharks will not bite a swimmer who keeps his legs in motion. If you can keep kicking longer than a shark can keep waiting you are all right.

"There is one thing I will say for poor old Simkins," remarked a brother journalist, at the funeral, "if he was a liar he was a gentlemanly liar."—Detroit Post.

The Boston Star says that the chief trouble with the age in which we live is that it believes too much in varnish and veneer, and too little in solid wood.

The first train over an Iowa railroad bridge smashed it in. This shows the folly of trying to put bridges together with their past. They should be guarded with dynamite.—Philadelphia Chronicle.

A brotherly Colorado "Personal" reads thus: "Mr. Orth Stoen, the gifted editor of the Lafayette Chronicle, arrived in town last evening. His remains will be shipped for home Monday evening."

[The Journal of Mental Science, London, says that "criminal responsibility is the psychological possibility of the dissociation of the penal code." It is a good definition if one has time to spare over it.

Sitting Bull is credited with remarking, in a thoughtful manner: "What a pity it is that but few leaders, the noble sons of the forest, failed to pass an anti-European bill early in the seventeenth century."—Old City Herald.

A Washington girl, Gertrude Nelson, won a prize of $3 by writing the best letter accepting an offer of marriage. That is all right, Gertrude, but let us tell you and any other girl that when a man is afraid to come to the house and ask for you right to your face, but sneaks off behind the post-office and asks for you at long range with a three-cent declaration of his love, the best answer you can make him is "No," in five-line pic.—Hartington Blackie.

Says a New York Mail writer: "Very few prettier girls have I ever seen than one who sat near me an evening not long ago at table d'hôte at the Continental, Philadelphia. The loveliest of autumn hair, beautiful features, smallest of mouths and prettiest of teeth—all combined to make her exceedingly attractive. Turning to a queer-looking little old lady at her side she suddenly exclaimed: 'Oh, ma, ain't she mince pies best?' Maybe her grammar was a little off, but she sized around those victuals mighty well.

There is a young editor wandering on the face of the earth, who formerly published a paper at Storm Lake, Iowa. He left there the day after the issue of his last paper, and is supposed to be crossing the State on foot to get away from an infuriated female populace. It seems there was a concert given by young ladies of the city, and a gallant young editor wrote it up in splendid shape. The same day he had visited a herd of short-horn cattle, owned by a farmer in the vicinity, and he wrote up the cattle also. The cross-eyed foreman of the office got the two articles paired as follows: "The concert given last evening by sixteen of Storm Lake's most beautiful and interesting young ladies was highly appreciated. They were elegantly dressed and sang in a most charming manner; winning the plaudits of the entire audience, who pronounced them the finest short-horns in the county. A few are of a rich brown color, but the majority are spotted brown and white. Several of the heifers were fine-bodied, tight-limbed animals, and promise to prove good property."

A TELLING LAW.
Mr. Charles Law, Jr., in conversation with one of our representatives, recently said: "I have been a sufferer from rheumatism and neuralgia for the past ten years, and tried all kinds of remedies. Having heard so much about St. Jacobs Oil, I tried a bottle, and found it truly wonderful."—Pittsboro (Pa.) Ledger.

A retired pugilist, who disapproves of the brutality of the modern prize fight, has taken up his residence in Lawrence because they have Pacific mills there.—Somerville Journal.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.
William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1879 I was taken with bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and was confined to my bed. In 1881 I was admitted to the hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half-dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I got a bottle, when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past.

I write this hoping every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicine I have taken since my sickness.

"Oh! for a better half," said the sorrowing widower when he found a counterfeit fifty-cent piece among his coins.—Cambridge Tribune.

SOMEONE'S CHILD.
Somebody's child is dying—lying with the flush of hope in his young face, and somebody's mother thinking of the time when that dear face will be hidden where no ray of hope can brighten it—because there was no cure for consumption. Reader, if the child be your neighbor's, take this comforting word to the mother's heart before it is

TRUTH IS MIGHTY.
When Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., announced that his "Favorite Prescription" would positively cure the many diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, some doubt, and continued to employ the harsh and caustic local treatment. But the mighty truth gradually became acknowledged. Thousands of ladies employed the "Favorite Prescription" and were speedily cured. By druggists.

The clergymen at Lampasa supply the prisoners in jail with manuscript sermons to read during their leisure hours. The way of the transgressor is hard, very hard.—Texas Siftings.

Mr. El. Trickett, the celebrated oarsman, Kingston, Canada, says: "I have found St. Jacobs Oil a sure and certain cure for rheumatism, etc."—New York Clipper.

The war cloud, like the atmospheric cloud, frequently presages a fall of reign.

In the cure of severe coughs, weak lungs, spitting of blood, and the early stages of Consumption Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" has astonished the medical faculty. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. By druggists.

If there ever was a specific for any one complaint, then Carter's Little Liver Pills are a specific for sick headache, and every woman should know this. Only one pill a dose.

T. T. HAYDOCK,

Carriage Manufacturer, Cor. Plum and 12th Sts., CINCINNATI, OHIO.

This firm is now in its sixth year of existence, and the rapid and permanent growth it has made is something unprecedented in the history of carriage building. Its permanency and growth have been accomplished, not by any special effort at "drumming" the trade, but by the excellence of the work produced, and by the low price at which this work has been sold. Another great feature of its success is in the STYLE of the work produced. It is too often the case that in low priced work the style is correspondingly low or common in appearance. But all goods manufactured by T. T. Haydock are made in a simple and artistic manner, thus adding beauty to quality. This firm does not build the lowest grade, nor the lowest priced work in the market by any means, but is making a specialty of a medium grade full leather top buggy at a very low price for the quality, and is offering special inducements to the trade to buy in large quantities. Send for Catalogue and Wholesale Price List, by addressing
